

CANNON AND NOBUHLE NOYANA together with Casper Minnaar are the directors of Noyana's Management Consultancy.

Company offers managerial services

Klerksdorp - Noyana's Management Consultancy (Pty) Ltd, a very successful Johannesburg-based company, has opened a branch in Klerksdorp.

A long-time resident of Klerksdorp, Casper Minnaar, heads up the Klerksdorp office.

Minnaar, a chartered accountant and the financial director of Noyana's, has been active in the business sector for many years.

The increase in the volume of business that NMC does in the Klerksdorp area has necessitated the opening of a local office for the convenience of these clients. Noyana's Management Consultancy (Pty) Ltd offers diverse managerial services, amongst which are accounting services and advisory services, including the preparation of Business Plans and applications for finance.

NMC works closely with SME development agencies, such as SEDA and Gauteng Enterprise Propeller and Development Finance Institutions such as Business Partners and the National Empowerment Fund.

The primary philosophy is one of close involvement initially, transfer of skills ensuring decreasing dependency, resulting in a mature enterprise being run according to best business practices. An ongoing relationship with the client is pursued to assist with growth and expansion activities. The head office in Johannesburg and the Limpopo office concentrate more on the mentoring of emerging construction contractors, and have done work for the Expanded Public Works Programme.
